

Through the extensive experience, which extends for more than 10 years and after the successive successes achieved by AFAQ GROUP in (JORDAN FOREX EXPO) for (4) years.

Therefore, we are honored in (AFAQ GROUP) to invite you to participate in (5th Jordan Forex Expo) (The Biggest Forex Show) which will be held between 3rd - 4th, May 2010 Amman - Jordan with participating of many companies, professionals, experts and analysts.

Event's Message:-

Looking into what the world is experiencing with the fast revolution in the economic and financial consulting in the different sectors especially in the FOREX locally and internationally and banking sector. All of which are factors to force investors to find the right place in the investing world FOREX, stock, securities and bonds, real estate. And get familiar with strategies of the investing sectors (profit sector) and diversity the investing are important rules used in the investing financial markets to obtain the balance between risk and return.

In the financial world, there is always who thinks different and has his own political /financial wisdom.

(5th JORDAN FOREX EXPO) is the meeting center point for many financial and investment institutions and brokers, in addition to all interested business owners. To show the standards and professional services to create transparency to attract different investment opportunities, especially after the last economic crises in last 2 years.