

The International Business and Investment association IBIA was established in 2008 and was formally promulgated at Cairo in Egypt as a national nongovernmental nonprofit organization, that does not receive any aid or donations whether they are local or foreign and that's according to the regulation of the constituent organization.